REGISTRATION SECTION

DR. WATTS OF GRENADA

NAMED TO TOP CTA POST

The Hon. Dr. John A. Watts, chairman of the Grenada Tourist Board, was elected chairman of the Caribbean Travel Association at the organization's 15th annual general meeting, June 14 through 18, in Haiti. He succeeds Harry W. Goeggel of the U.S. Virgin Islands, who had served as chairman for the past two years.

More than 100 delegates attended the meeting, the largest number ever in CTA's history.

Others named to the CTA executive committee were Otto Vervuurt, chairman of the Surinam Tourist Board, vice chairman; Gerard de Catalogne, director general of the Haiti National Tourist Office, as a director for Government Members; Hector Pineiro, director of the Puerto Rico Department of Tourism, as a director for Government Members; G. Robert Simmons, sales manager/ North America, British West Indian Airways, as a director for Industry Members; Mrs. Jane H. Condon of Robert Reid Associates (RR Hotel Representatives), as director of Associate Members and secretary-treasurer; and George M. Markides, manager of the Curacao Intercontinental Hotel, as representative of the Caribbean Hotel Association (CHA).

Named to the CTA Board of Directors were three representatives each for Industry, Associate and CHA members. Industry representatives are Donald Broadley, regional manager, N.Y. area, Air France; G. Robert Simmons, and John J. Nestor of Home Lines. Selected as Associate Member Representatives were Mrs. Condon, Martin Wittstein, executive vice president of the Caribbean Beachcomber; and Jack Crawford of the New Yorker Magazine. Representing CHA are George Markides, Osmund Kelsick of the Blue Waters Beach Hotel, Antigua; and Peter Morgan of the St. Lawrence Hotel, Barbados.

Also serving on the CTA Board of Directors will be a representative of each of the following Government Members: Aruba, Bonaire, British Virgin Islands, Curacao, Dominica, Grenada, Guadeloupe, Haiti, Martinique, Puerto Rico, Saba, St. Eustatius, St. Kitts, St. Lucia, St. Maarten, St. Vincent, Surinam, and the U.S. Virgin Islands.

The major action of the meeting concerned a new rate structure designed to increase CTA's income for promotional activities and operation of its N.Y. office. The current rate based on hotel beds available will be kept this year.

The executive committee was requested to prepare a new budget by July 1 under a new rate structure for Government Members based on an assessment of ten cents per "visitor." For assessment purposes, a visitor is defined as a "traveler who enters the area through the regularly constituted immigration control and spends at least one night in a tourist facility."

An assessment of five cents will be levied for all passengers of recognized cruise ships, per cruise passenger list, visiting the area.

A proviso of the new budget is that no member pay less than at present.

Genial Dr. Watts, a dentist by profession, has been architect of Grenada's phenomenal rise in tourism in recent years. The number of visitors at his island reached a record high of 29,840 in 1965, up from a previous record of 21,624 the year before.

Delegates agree that he represents their aspirations towards developing closer economic and cultural ties among Caribbean nations, and towards new efforts to gather back into the CTA fold those islands which have left the organization.

These aims were outlined in a speech by Mr. de Catalogne, who called for the "creation of a regional alliance for progress, of a mutual understanding for which tourism would be the common denominator."

Also addressing the group were President Francois Duvalier of Haiti, Mayor Georges Figaro of Port-au-Prince, Harry Goeggel, outgoing chairman; and Martin Winsch, general manager of CTA.

A resolution was passed changing the convention format to include at least one day of panel discussions on informative and educational topics pertaining to tourism.

Another resolution requested that annual reports from the chairman and general manager be submitted to delegates at least a month prior to the annual meeting.

Other resolutions thanked President Duvalier, Mayor Figaro, Mr. de Catalogne, and the various hotels and tourist interests of Haiti for their outstanding assistance in hosting the convention. Also lauded were Winsch and his staff; Goeggel, and the new chairman, Dr. Watts.

Meetings were held in the Port-au-Prince City Hall. Delegates also were hosted at the National Palace, Hotel Castel Haiti, El Rancho Hotel, Montana Hotel, Villa Creole Hotel, International Casino, Raymond L. Roy's in Kenscoff, Hotel Ibo Lele, the Cabane Choucounne and the Hostellerie du Roi Christophe. Delegates enjoyed sightseeing tours of Port-au-Prince, nearby Kenscoff, and a post convention trip to Cap Haitien for visits to the ruins of Sans Souci and the famous Citadelle.

TOURISM RECORDS SET

BY CARIBBEAN ISLANDS

Caribbean lands hosted a new record of 2,519,082 vacationers during 1965, a rise of 43 percent over the previous high of 1,759,775 in 1964, according to statistics compiled by the Caribbean Travel Association. Estimates based on preliminary statistics indicate a new record of more than three million visitors this year.

The top dozen destinations in order of popularity were Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, Jamaica, Trinidad and Tobago, Barbados, Curacao, Martinique, Antigua, Aruba, Grenada, St. Maarten (including Saba and St. Eustatius), and Guadeloupe.

Martin J. Winsch, general manager of the CTA, credits several factors for the continuing tourism boom. These include new direct jet routes from the United States to almost every Caribbean island and the initiation of low-cost excursion fares. These round-trip rates are as low as $90 from New York to Puerto Rico; ranging upwards to an average of $150 to most islands, and $209 to Trinidad, the most distant.

More than 300 Caribbean cruises have been slated for 1967, including voyages by several of the world's largest transatlantic liners which "moonlight" to the West Indies during winter months.

Also important is the hotel boom in the islands which has provided increased accommodations and facilities for the busy "winter season" months from mid-December to mid-April. Nevertheless, choice rooms remain difficult to book during winter months unless reservations are made well in advance. Most important, says Winsch, has been the increasing acceptance of the Caribbean as a year-round destination.

The number of visitors in any "summer" month this year exceeded those for any peak season "winter" month but a year or two ago. The "summer" season in the Caribbean extends from mid-April through mid-December when hotels offer an average 20 percent reduction in rates.

Islands which showed gains in tourism last year were:

Antigua, up from 55,737 in 1964 to 60,427 in 1965;

Aruba, up from 36,499 to 40,174;

Barbados, up from 99,296, to 121,082;

Bonaire, up from 5,157 to 5,887;

British Virgin Islands, from 15,230 to 16,316;

Curacao, from 86,988 to 97,440;

Dominica, from 6,168, to 6,897;

Grenada, from 21,634 to 29,840;

Guadeloupe, from 19,957 to 26,887;

Haiti, from 23,225 to 26,513;

Jamaica, from 227,417 to 316,604;

Martinique, from 46,129 to 61,118;

Puerto Rico, from 605,845 to 703,255;

St. Lucia, from 17,424 to 23,856;

Saba, St. Eustatius and St. Maarten (as a group), from 22,331 to 27,064;

St. Vincent, from 17,693 to 21,041;

Surinam (on the South American mainland), from 8,404 to 9,645;

Trinidad and Tobago, from 213,874 (1963) to 251,410; and the U.S. Virgin Islands (St. Thomas, St. Croix, St. John), from 448,165 to 647,717.

Decreases were reported by the Dominican Republic, from 39,865 in 1964 to 14,143 in 1965 (first three months only); and St. Kitts, Nevis and Anguilla (as a group), from 11,844 to 11,766.

CHA ELECTS OFFICERS AND OUTLINES NEW DETAILS FOR DEPOSITS AND CANCELLATIONS

An agreement outlining procedures for hotel deposits and cancellations highlighted the 8th annual meeting of the Caribbean Hotel Association June 23-26 at the Condado Beach Hotel, San Juan.

Elected president was Osmund Kelsick, managing director of the Blue Waters Beach and Half Moon Bay hotels on Antigua. He has served as acting president since March of this year when Henry Steeber of Aruba resigned the post.

Others named were Fred E. Dieterle, vice president and general manager of the Condado Beach Hotel, as first vice president; George Markides, general manager of the Curacao Intercontinental Hotel, as second vice president; Robert Lake, managing director of Courtleigh Manor, Kingston, Jamaica, as third vice president; Earl Smith, general manager of the Blue Water Beach Hotel, Barbados, as secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Patricia Shillito as executive secretary.

Details on the hotel deposit and cancellation policy agreement, which still may have to be finalized, were reported as follows.

For San Juan, St. Thomas and St. Croix, the cancellation period during the summer and winter seasons was set at three days, and at ten days during Christmas. The cancellation charge, effective all year, was set at one day's rate. The "no show" charge was set at a one-day rate in summer, and at a three-day rate during the winter and Christmas seasons.

For Jamaica and the eastern islands including Puerto Rico but not San Juan, cancellation periods were set at three days during the summer, 15 days in winter and 21 days during Christmas. The cancellation charge was set at a one-day rate throughout the year. The "no show" charge was set at a one-day rate during the summer.

For "no shows" during the winter and Christmas seasons, a one-day charge was set for stays of one to three days; a two-day charge for stays of four to six days, and a three-day charge for stays of seven or more days.

Further clarification or changes in geographical classification of the plan may be made.

Procedures for deposits call for a one-day deposit during the summer season and a three-day deposit during the winter and Christmas seasons.

It was also agreed that the CHA, as an affiliate of the Caribbean Travel Association, have its name placed on the door and in the lobby of CTA offices at 20 East 46th Street, New York City, and also in the New York telephone directory, using the CTA number, MU 2-0435.

Members approved a measure under which regional directors will be named to promote "grass-roots" interest and better coordination of activities.
